

FACTS & FIGURES

Bachelor of Arts in Music

Jimei University – Xiamen, China

September 2010 – July 2014

Recipient: Departmental Scholarship (2013)

During her undergraduate studies at Jimei University, Zhongxi Lin distinguished herself as a highly awarded young pianist. Her exceptional talent was recognized through multiple prestigious piano competitions across China and Hong Kong, where she consistently earned top honors. Her academic excellence and artistic growth laid a strong foundation for her future in collaborative and solo piano performance.

Selected Honors and Awards

- Third Place, Four Hands Piano – 3rd National Colleges and Universities Piano Showcase, Xiamen (2011)
- Golden Award, Professional Youth Group – Hong Kong International Piano Open Competition, Fujian (2012)
- Second Award, Senior Professional Group – Hong Kong International Piano Open Competition, Fujian (2012)
- Excellence Award, Senior Professional Group – Hong Kong International Piano Open Competition, Hong Kong (2013)
- Second Award, Professional Youth Group – 4th KAWAI Asia Piano Competition, Xiamen (2013)
- First Prize, Chopin Ballade – 18th Hongkong-Asian Piano Open Competition, Fujian (2014)
- First Prize, 19th Hongkong-Asian Piano Open Competition, Fujian (2016) (post-graduation)
- Outstanding Performance Award, Youth Group – 17th Osaka International Music Competition, China (2016)
- Excellent Instructor Award – 12th Chinese Literature and Art Display Competition, Fujian (2016)

Postgraduate Professional Experience

After completing her bachelor's degree, Zhongxi Lin worked as an accompanist at the Fujian Grand Theatre, contributing to various opera and vocal productions, including On the Mawei Hills and Puccini's La Bohème. She regularly collaborated with vocalists in rehearsals and regional recitals, gaining valuable experience in operatic and art song repertoire.